Ableism – The suggestion that preferring able people is a form of oppression. (Truly woke neo-Marxists seek to unbuild societal institutions, in all their aspects, and this includes replacing able professionals with clowns, bums, or Critically-conscious saboteurs.)

Accountability – The woke utilitarian justification for admitted injustices. E.g, the police officers who knelt upon George Floyd may've been innocent, but should be convicted, as if they were guilty, merely for the sake of nation-wide police accountability.

Ally – Moderates not personally invested in the Critically-conscious neo-Marxist DEI agenda, or in a particular minority, are conditioned to enter into the 'Ally zone.' Here, it's enough that a person simply doesn't oppose the woke agenda, but just remains silently approving.

Belonging – Obligatory spontaneous celebration, inversely proportional to a person/thing's need for Safe Space. (It was a pious U.S.S.R. tradition, that the first person to stop celebrating was hauled away to be sacrificially canceled, in secret, with a gunshot.)

Black Lives Matter – A front-organization run by self-professed "trained Marxists," which rioted the entire summer of 2020, killing 24, to try to hurry up Marx's prophesied day of universal world revolution. (Meanwhile, its leaders, just like in Animal Farm, spent the proletariat's hard-earned donations on $12M of luxury properties in LA & Toronto.)

Cancel – To topple any privileged or colluding person.

Cis-gender – A designation used to characterize a normalized majority as if it were a mere minority, or co-equal sharer in legitimacy, together with a fringe, deviant peculiarity. See Transgender, Gender.

Collusion – Preventing someone from eliminating oppression. All moderates are either colluders (bad), or allies (good).

Colonization – The arrival of (anyone with) ideology. Opposite of Migration, DeColonization.

Color-blindness – Gentle rebuke for any ally who doesn't sufficiently parrot Critical Race Theory's dogma about universal minority marginalization & oppressed victimhood.

Critical – 1950s Frankfurt neo-Marxist School's term for properly seeing something with the correct neo-Marxist attitude, usually as oppressed-or-oppressor. E.g, "2+2 = 4" is an act of Oppression, but "2 bigotries + 2 bigotries = 4 bigotries" an act of DeColonization.

Critical Consciousness – Synonym for woke. It's when a person finally arrives at the utopian realization that it's not about fixing this-or-that wrong, but about advancing the general Hegelian dialectic-process thru deeper-&-deeper cancellation-purges (Bloodshed is optional !), until arrival at the Omega point (Great Reset) of world revolution, when everyone will universally confess the new worldwide creed, and their proper identity within it, thus rewriting history & reality. See critical.

Critical Race Theory – Synonym for "Class Warfare." Everyone-&-everything must be divided into marginalized victims, or privileged oppressors. Then the disparity between them must be deconstructively harped upon, until the "oppressor" crumbles or confesses collusion, and the "victim" correctly parrots Critically conscious activism.

Critical Reasoning – The removal of ideology, unlearning it, and then optionally relearning it with proper woke jargon & disapproval.

Culture – Similar to ideology, any habit which is resistant to the dialectic process toward world revolution, and which must therefore be shamed & renounced as oppressive to someone.

Cultural (Mis)Appropriation – An excuse to blame one culture for liking another culture, since all cultures & identities, are ultimately supposed to be erased.

Decolonization – The removal of ideology, unlearning it, and then optionally relearning it with proper woke jargon & disapproval.

DEI (BF) – Diversity, Equity, Inclusion; and optionally Belonging & Justice.

Discrimination – Unequal mis-treatment of marginalized groups. (But unequal mis-treatment of privileged groups is accountability, e.g, in “Affirmative Action” programs.)

Diversity – The obligatory hiring, not of diverse people, per se, but of Diversity experts (“apparatchiks”), able to parrot all this critical-neo-Marxist dogma / techno-jargon.

Equity – Socialism. (The redistribution of wealth/truth until everyone has equal amounts.) In the processing dialectic of History, it’s the stage, just before Justice (Communism).

Gender – The imaginary, fantasy correlative to one’s real, biological sex. Gender can change or redefine itself, as flippantly or creatively, as one’s feelings change, and this must be insisted upon, to liberate people from the former oppressive* ideology of Natural Law, wherein they were supposed to conform to the so-called ‘nature’, in which they were supposedly created. See Transgender.

Great Reset – The dawning of world revolution, by reaching the Omega point, when all opposition has been finally removed to implementing a neo-Marxist belief, or policy, so that it may be dictated autocratically from the top, by woke neo-Marxist Party leadership.

Heteronormativity – A label to pigeonhole heterosexuals in, as if they are not in fact the universal “norm.” See Queer.

Ideology – A slur for any pre-existing beliefs (except Marxist* Critical consciousness Theory, which alone doesn’t count as ideology, but as Science).

Inclusion – Censorship & cancellation of anyone/anything contrarian. See Safe Space.

Intersectionality – Attention to the number of victimhoods that intersect in a person: The more victimhoods that you can show to intersect in you, the more authentic you are, and the more you can- &-should help demand arbitrary concessions, as accountability.

Justice – The long-term goal: Voluntary Communism. (But, according to Marx, this will only occur after a traumatic period of enforced Socialism.) See Great Reset.

LGBTQ – A catchall omnibus of sexual “filth[s]”, used as a test-case, to see if a person is truly willing to check all their common sense, values, and very soul, for party dogma, thus also demonstrating their advancement-potential, as activists, in the similarly-unnatural brainwashing scheme, neo-Marxism.

Liberation – Any Marxist success. E.g., freeing people from the free market, to exist in a highly-regulated Socialist redistribution-system, is Liberation. Synonym for DeColonization, e.g, Liberation Theology is where one un-learns Theology, so that it may be re-learned, in a neo-Marxist context.

Non-binary – A piece of jargon useable (1) to sound technical; or (2) to demonstrate one’s openness-of-mind to be so total, that one could believe anything, even neo-Marxism

Marginalization – Synonym for victimhood. Opposite of Privilege.

Marxism – The notion that there are ‘haves’ and ‘have-nots’, and that the ‘haves’ use their possessions to control and oppress the ‘have-nots,’ so they need to be repeatedly cancelled, until everyone is a ‘have not.’ Synonym for Justice.

Neo-Marxism – In addition to Marxism, the notion that there are ALSO ‘haves’ and ‘have-nots’ in ideas, and that the ‘haves’ use their knowledge to control and oppress the ‘have-nots,’ so they need to be repeatedly cancelled, until everyone knows nothing, except what has been reframed from a neo-Marxist perspective. Synonym for woke, and Critically conscious.

Migration – The arrival of anyone who hides their ideology. Opposite of Colonization.

Oppression – Ever since the Frankfurt School (1950s), it’s any knowledge that enables knowers to have power over ignoramuses. (Perpetuating such knowledge is Collusion) Alternatively, it’s any power-imbalance, whatsoever.

Patriarchy – Panacea-slur with which to disparage any authority whatsoever, on the basis of its association with the male gender; or any male on the basis of his/hir/its/their/sein+ association with authority.

Prejudice – An un-justified judgment about a group. (E.g. the terms patriarchy, and racial Capitalism would be excellent examples of prejudice, except that they were coined by the woke who alone bring about Justice, and who alone have the Gnostic insight to justly define groups.)

Privilege – Inability to demonstrate victimhood, and thus consequent cancel-ability. Opposite of marginalization.

Queer – To goad youth into testing out various kinds of sex, so as to destabilize their sexual identities & values, and thus transform them into confused, angry Relativistic activists.

Race – A made-up social construct, that doesn’t exist; but it does exist for purposes of assigning oppression, marginalization, and right to demand accountability.

Racial & Ethnic Identity – Similar to gender-identity, it’s a secret loophole, enabling newly-woke privileged people, like Sen. Elizabeth Warren, to slyly transition to marginalized status, merely by identifying as the race/ethnicity of their former victims. However, they must do it authentically, dressing–acting–&–talking like, advocating for, and celebrating their new race/ethnicity. Poor actors may be deemed guilty of Cultural Appropriation.

Racial Capitalism – The notion that capitalism (a.k.a. “The Free Market”) is inherently racist, because it considers the existence of race, when, as a stereotypical oppressor, it has no right to do that. (But Capitalism does have the right to consider race, if it duly consults neo-Marxist experts, who alone have the insight to define groups, and their appropriate aptitudes. Such consultation occurs, thru the hiring of DEI staff, to direct them, and avocate for them, that they are in fact liberating, rather than oppressing.)

Racialization – Racism toward an entire ethnicity.

Racial Reconciliation – A show-trial, within one’s local community, that culminates in Justice within that community, converting the entire community into a Safe Space. Reparations then become no longer necessary, since accountability can then be imposed, by the more regular means, of top-down party dictats.

Racism – Given that race sometimes exists, but sometimes doesn’t exist, racism occurs, any time that a consideration of race ought not to occur, but does; or ought to occur, but doesn’t. Again, it should only occur for purposes of assigning oppression, marginalization, and right to demand accountability.

Racist – Anyone colluding with a racist policy, or government. (Given that all govern-ments on earth currently exerise racist bias in favor of their own particular racial majority, everyone who is not a government-unbuilding, woke, globalist revolutionary, is a racist.)

Reparations – A form of accountability; it's a mere token acknowledgment, that a person can never fully atone for their ancestors' possible crimes, consequential damages to that ancestor's victim's partial descendants, but that their ancestors' victim's partial descendants hold eternal rights to unending, on-demand reparations, up and until some point where Equity occurs.

Safe Space – A holy area, defended from contrarian ideology, where persons of victimhood can receive the nourishing sacraments of the coming neo-Marxist utopia, imagining how it will someday be EVERYWHERE! (Safe spaces are temporary micro-cosms that should grow, over time, someday merging with the future Communist state.)

Science – An oppressive social construct, which discounts other “knowledges,” or “ways of knowing.” To some theorists, like Gramsci, the only true science is Marxism.

Social Emotional Learning – The process of brainwashing children, without their realizing it. It involves 1.) Searching for emotionally Generative Themes. 2.) Codifying & Decodifying the cultural item to be destroyed. 3.) Problematizing it for them, to create 4.) their Conscientization, as a cloned activist or ally (at least for this issue).

Structural Racism – Collusion* with the idea that population-wide histories, cultures, and institutions should be allowed to compete, and produce unequal outcomes. Solved by implementing Equity, or just Marxism.

Targeted Universalism – Like in archery, staying mindful of the ultimate target, which is universal world revolution.

Tokenism – The Plantational, and later Democrat Party tradition of maintaining domestic servants (e.g, figurehead president Barak Obama) around the administration hub, as a token of supposed minority approval & involvement, without giving them actual power. (Conservatives, by contrast, typically don't hire/vote for such token-individuals, unless they can demonstrate (1) skills and (2) selfless, enthusiastic, interpersonal cooperation.)

Transgender – The anti-Realist, anti-Scientific, Idealistic fantasy that there are social constructs, associated with sex, but not sex, but twistable to association with the opposite sex, or no sex; and that neither 30 trillion body-encoding, unanimous, pieces of molecular evidence, nor any Theological, Philosophical, or Ethical authority, should have any say in contesting this fantasy. See Gender, Cis-gender.

White Fragility – The gleeful moment when whites finally snap, and over-react, thus making them framable as oppressors.

White Supremacy – The intolerable, insulting phobia against considering whether white culture might be objectively more widely successful than non-white culture.

(No, this isn't Black Fragility, which can't be admitted to exist, as it would violate woke ethics to disparage the marginalized. No, that's not privilege, nor prejudice either, but consciousness)

Whiteness – Convenient jargon to co-condemn any Token blacks who don't sufficiently act according to their new, neo-Marxist-assigned black identity.

Woke – Street-talk synonym for the academic term Critical consciousness.

-X – Suffix to specify gender-indeterminacy, e.g, instead of Latino, or Latina, write Latinx, even if Latinxes never use this word. And no, this isn't Cultural (Mis)Appropriation, because woke experts alone have the Gnostic insight to authentically & appropriately define people.

Xenophobia – A disparaging label for anyone unexcited about merging with their neighbors, and losing their identity, as called for by the Communist agenda.
